"A greater gift I could not give to man.

And when I sent My Son on earth, He was not hard to please. No, He was not hard to please—either about food, or lodging, or state in life, or about anything—except His Mother. But about Her, He was exacting. He wanted His Mother to be a masterpiece."—Godin.

AND so she was and so is she still. Our own beautiful campus shrine to Our Lady glimpses for us a shadow of that heavenly masterpiece. Leaden feet may drag us to a class we are unprepared for, but always winged feet speed us to the feet of Our Blessed Mother.

Kneeling before her shrine, we dedicate our Annual to Our Lady, repeating with our lips and with our hearts, the words of this Marian Year prayer:

"Receive, O Most Sweet Mother, our humble supplications, and above all obtain for us that, one day, happy with you, we may repeat before your throne that hymn which today is sung on earth around your altars: You are all beautiful, O Mary! You are the glory, you are the joy, you are the honor of our people! Amen."

Dedication

Hundreds of thousands of pilgrims have knelt at the feet of our beloved Holy Father, Pope Pius XII. They numbered the rich, the poor, the learned and the ignorant, the saint and the sinner.

But diverse as were the groups the pilgrims represented, they had a unifying bond: they sensed the utter other-worldliness of the Vicar of Christ on earth; they felt the attraction of his Christian goodness.

No doubt many sought to probe the secret of the graciousness, the serenity of this kindly man of God, the secret of his other-worldliness. They would follow in his footsteps. They, too, would acquire serenity in an age of tempest and turmoil.

The secret? Our Holy Father's tender love and devotion to Our Lady. This tender devotion he would have us practice. And so the Marian Year, 1954!

In Our Blessed Lady's footsteps he would have us walk, confident of finding in her way of humility and purity and charity "appeasement of our ardent desires and a safe harbor from the tempests which beset us on every side."

To Ernest a real golden kid and a good daddy + friend from
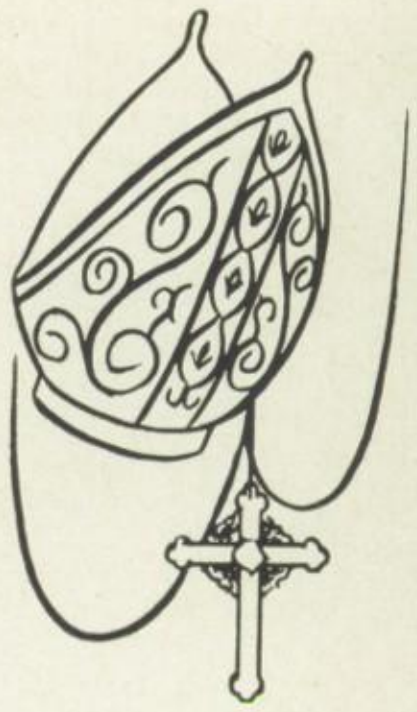
His Holiness Pope Pius XII
Ed McBride

"... Lives of great men all remind us
We can make our lives sublime;
And departing, leave behind us
Footprints on the sands of time ..."

Longfellow



Just such incentive is given us by the life of His Excellency, Bishop Emmet M. Walsh.

Through his example and teaching he has inspired us to train ourselves to become Catholic leaders. He has motivated us, armed us for Catholic Action.

With plans for the enlargement of Ursuline underway, his dream for the expansion of Catholic educational facilities is beginning to be realized.

We must make the dream complete. The "footprints" are there. We have but to follow them.

Bishop Emmet Michael Walsh

to one & Emmet from Walsh good luck & God Bless
you, My Boy
EMMET

Father Glenn Holdbrook
Principal

"He's following his father's footsteps," we hear said of a young man who has chosen to carry on the work of his father.

He might modify the expression slightly in speaking of Father Holdbrook, for "he's following in his Heavenly Father's footsteps."

Truly we have seen the likeness of Christ in him as we have talked and worked with him.

We are led to recall how Christ showed not a sign of impatience when the crowds pressed on Him . . . how He had always a kindly word for the poor and the weak . . . of His patience with the sinner and the ignorant . . . of His just anger when His Father's honor was attacked.

With the years, the picture becomes more true: a more perfect image of the Master. With the years our appreciation and gratitude deepen for one who has followed and taught us to follow . . . in Our Father's footsteps.

In September, 1950, Father Donald Reagan and we of '54 stepped through the doors of Ursuline High together—Father, as assistant principal; we, the faltering freshmen.

Even with his two feet firmly planted in the twentieth century Father began to travel up, up, up! We traveled along with him, enjoying the benefits of his counsel, his example, and his achievements.

Definitely Ursuline-minded, the new Ursuline will see even bigger and better strides forward through the cooperation of the Reverend Donald Reagan.

Assistant Principal

As we walk down the aisle on graduation day and step forward to receive our diplomas, our feet are rapidly approaching a bend in the road.

Back in 1950 we rounded another curve. Those four intervening years have piled up hosts of memories: sacred ones — gay ones.

In our freshman year we were the lowliest of the lowly, but the frosh football team went unbeaten and unscored upon.

By the fall of '51, we were old pros, gazing unsympathetically on the faltering frosh. The sophomore year held its pleasures along with the now familiar routine. We became a full-fledged member of the varsity team, and that winter the Snow Ball was held.

SENIORS

Junior year found us sure of our footing. Instead of creeping cautiously around corners, we stepped forth boldly. Daily Mass was introduced. We ordered graduation rings and attended our first prom. In sports, we tied East for the football championship.

Now we have come to the magical and long-awaited senior year. With each passing month we advance further along the road. A new and broader bend looms near.

CLASS OFFICERS

Sally Sattler, Carl Kish, Jack Kollar and Joan Mahan plan the senior activity schedule.

Stepping up in their roles as leaders of the class, the senior officers worked energetically in activities and organizations.

President Carl Kish excelled as an all-'round sports star and as a leader in the Catholic Exponent campaign.

Another Catholic Action worker was Sally Sattler, vice-president. Sally divided her extra-curricular time between Altar committee and Glee club activities.

Jack Kollar, treasurer, also rose high as an athlete. His flashing feet starred in track, basketball, and football for his entire four years. In Campus club activities, his brawn was put to a very practical use.

Secretary Joan Mahan, has served her class as an officer for two years and has been a devoted Altar committee worker and Mission club member.

Our feet have carried us . . .

As they carry us down the graduation aisle . . .

Taking a first step toward the goal this year were the freshman, truly the "green" of our beloved green and gold. They have quickly grasped the tempo of things here and have made a good showing in all their undertakings.

The up and coming sophomores hopefully and anxiously tread the path leading to the realm of upperclassmen. By participation in sports and other activities, they have proved that they are worthy members of Ursuline.

UNDERGRADUATES

Guiding the junior class to the final step toward the goal were their officers. The cooperation of the class with these officers made possible the memorable junior-senior prom, the Catholic Exponent victory and a fine class spirit. The senior class leaves its Alma Mater confident that the true Irish spirit will be carried on by the class of '55.

The seniors ask but one favor of the underclassmen—that they water the shamrocks and feed the leprechauns daily.

Before we step into the adult world, let us look back and recall some of the wonderful events of our senior year.

Remember the Apologetics classes where Father Holdbrook illustrated the famous footprints to help us to understand . . . and the inspiring retreats . . . the many devotions at Our Lady's shrine?

There were dances to remember . . . intermission skits we'll always enjoy recalling . . . our ever-temperamental water fountain . . . classes and projects and club activities . . . lasting friendships . . . all of these.

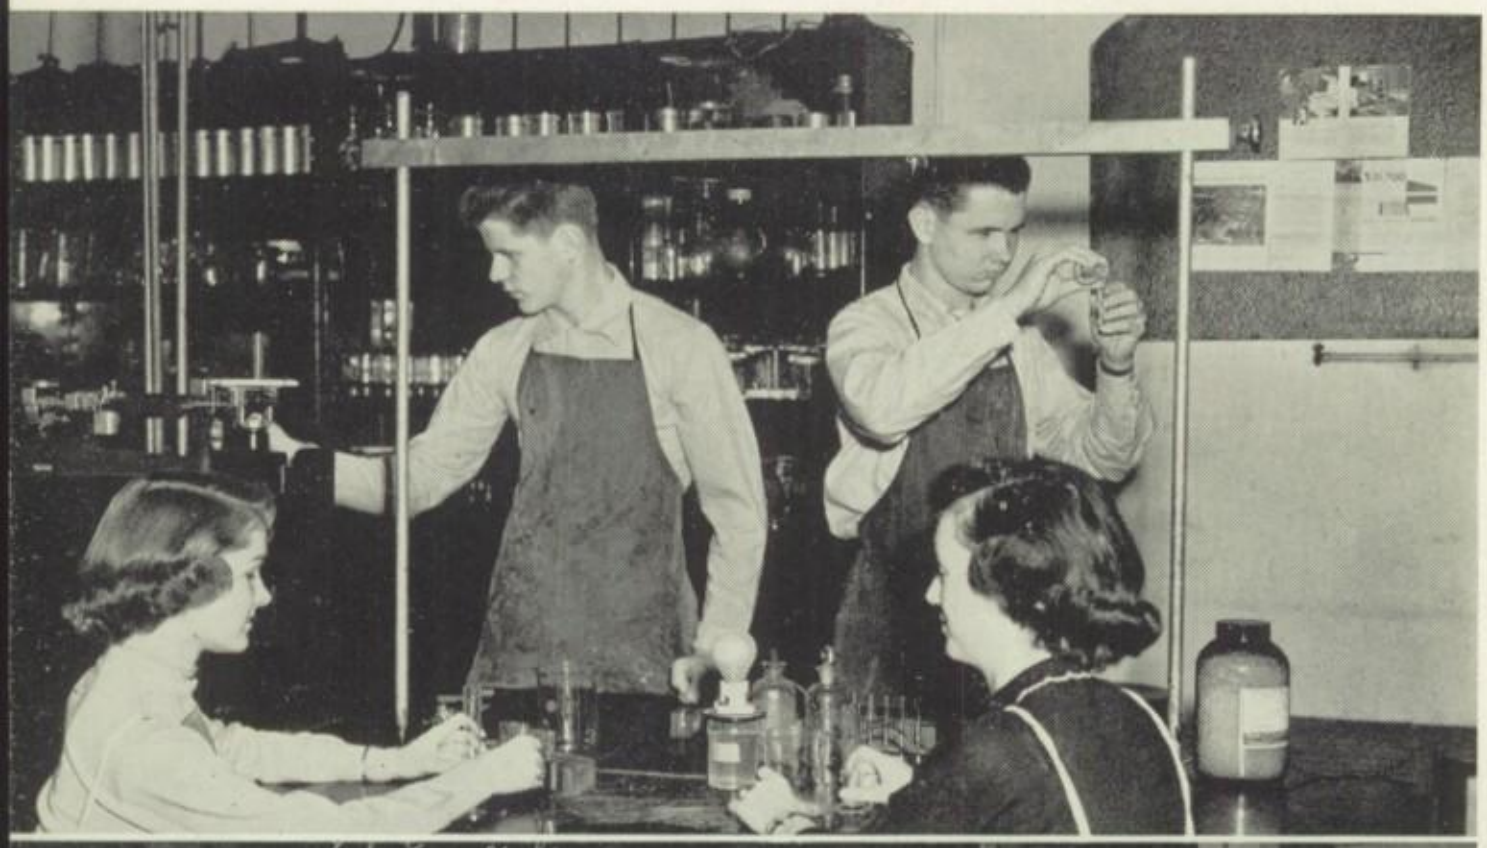
ACTIVITIES

Yes, these memories will stay with each of us. And as we stand together for the last time at graduation and sing our thanks to God, we will really feel gratitude for the opportunity of a true education at Ursuline . . . an education guided by Priests and Nuns and Lay-teachers.

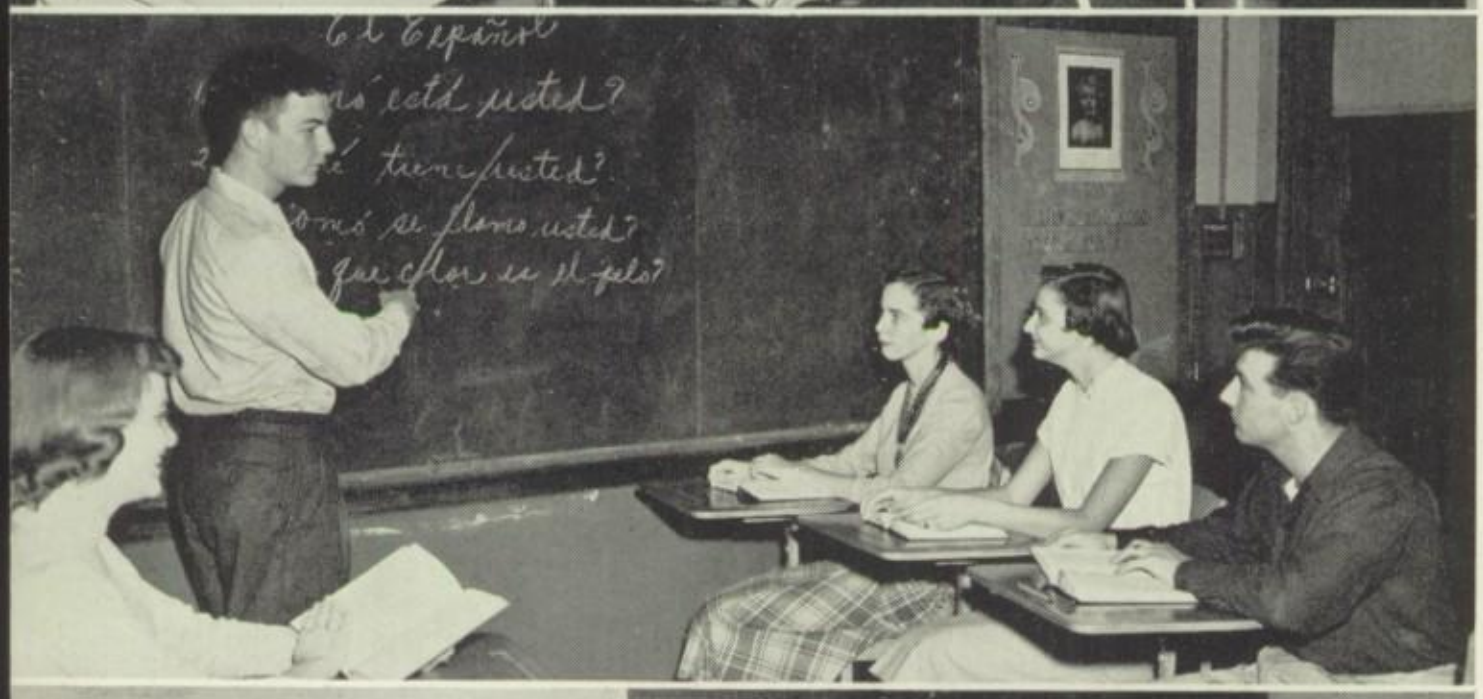
We will sing out our thanks, too, to our parents who made possible such an excellent education.

SIONS

Joan Mahan and Mary Reape think this is a man sized job so they solicit the aid of Andrew Bernard and Bob Craine.



Doctor, druggist, scientist
No matter what they may be
They will always be thankful
They studied Chemistry.



Here sit our Spanish scholars
Looking bright as silver dollars
Teacher's trying to make it plain
So they'll be ready for that trip to Spain.

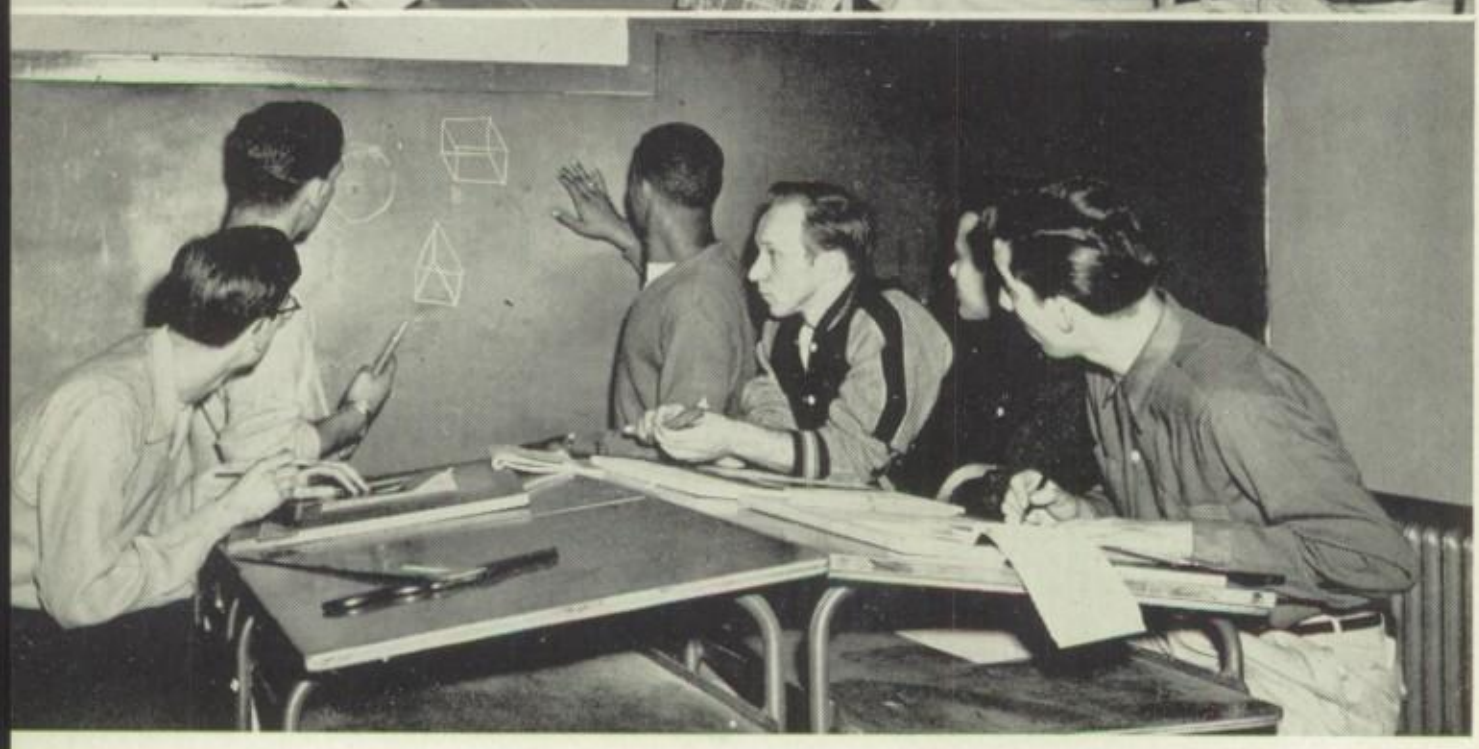
Gordon Welsh takes over the role of teacher for the benefit of Diane McKenna, Barbara Hunter, Helen Lynch and Bob Morgano.



Masters of the drawing board,
Geniuses with a pen;
These are future engineers,
These are Ursuline's MEN!

The blackboard not the drawing board seems to be the center of attraction for Tom Broderick, Jerry Scheetz, Charles Mitchell, Phil Brown, Ed Sferra and Jim Stefanic.

Rosetta Procopio, Jane Ann Buckon, James Giester and Sally Franken work at their drawing while Esther Naberezny touches up her prize-winning sketch.

Some people are born with looks;
Others are blessed with brains.
But to these limited few with talent so new,
Art has laid its claims.

A typical P. O. D. Class
As you can clearly see,
They are solving National Problems
To make the nation free.

Norman Johnson, Mary Bertrando and Ellen Ann Brahney, standing, seem to lead this discussion as James Giester, Georgia Vrabel and Michelena Fata listen in.

Push, pull, click, click,
Hurry, hurry, let's be quick
Add those figures one by one
Another page and we'll be done.

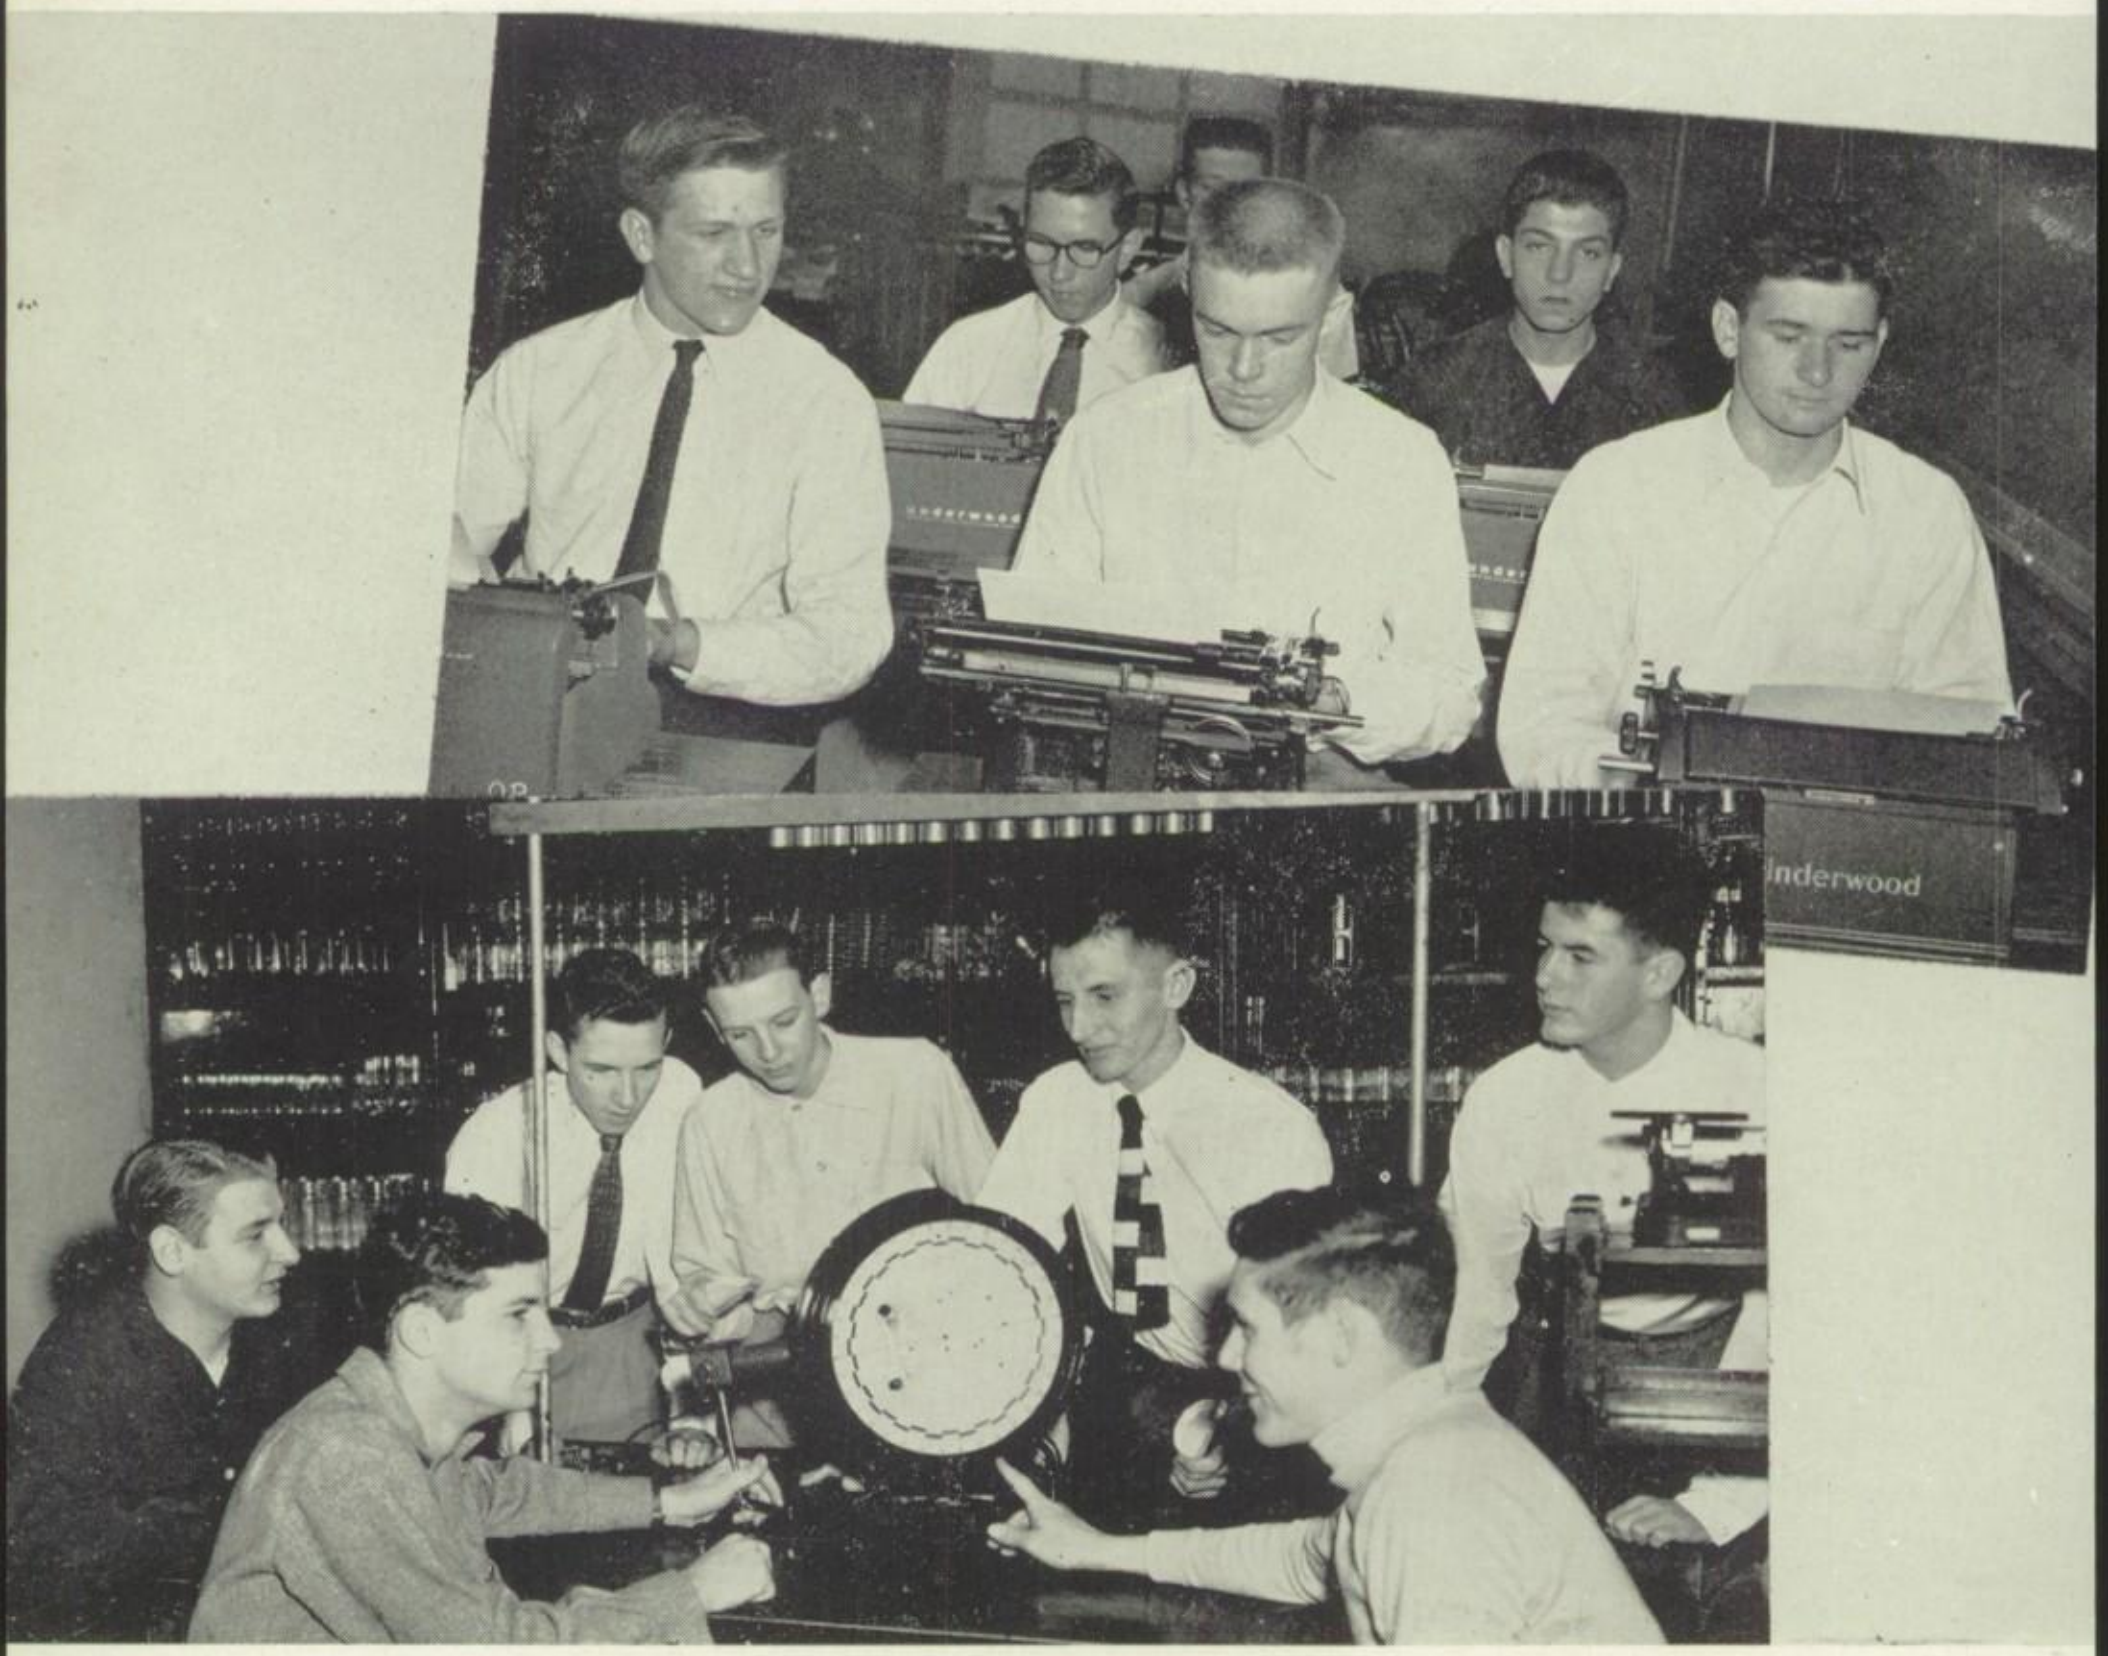
Mary Margaret Anderson and Marilyn Kensinger supervise as Charlotte Kramer, Barbara Hunter, Fay Basile, Catherine Bless and Joan Parks test their speed at the adding machine.

The Cardinal is our favorite bird;
The Carnation is our flower.
And just to learn about our state
We study by the hour.

Pointing out key places in the history and development of Catholicity in Ohio are Bill Beeman and Carole Fickers. Tom Domer, Veronica Walihnac, Joe Doyle and Barbara Day join in the discussion.

Their typing is fast,
They work with heed,
Seventy words a minute
Boys, that's real speed!

Chuck Spencer, Joe Schlueter, and Barry Connors prepare for their speed test while behind them Jack Obendorfer and Vince Ficocelli look as though they have a head start. Somewhere behind it all is Jim Matko.



Measuring the focal lengths in Physics are, standing Jack Obendorfer, Tom McGunigal, Cyril Elias, Tom Hagan, Bob Martin, John Nierlich and Bob Kaminski.

Franklin discovered electricity;
Edison, the electric light.
No telling what our boys will do
Studying with all their might.

Our girls have brains,
Our girls have looks;
Not only that,
They make good cooks.

If supper isn't ready we're going to blame Mary Ann Webber, Gertrude Schuler, Dorothy Donahue, Carole O'Neill and Barbara Milsop.

John Power records some of those tricky French verbs while John Ulicney, Tom McLaughlin, Joan Wittnauer and Jan Welsh watch admiringly.

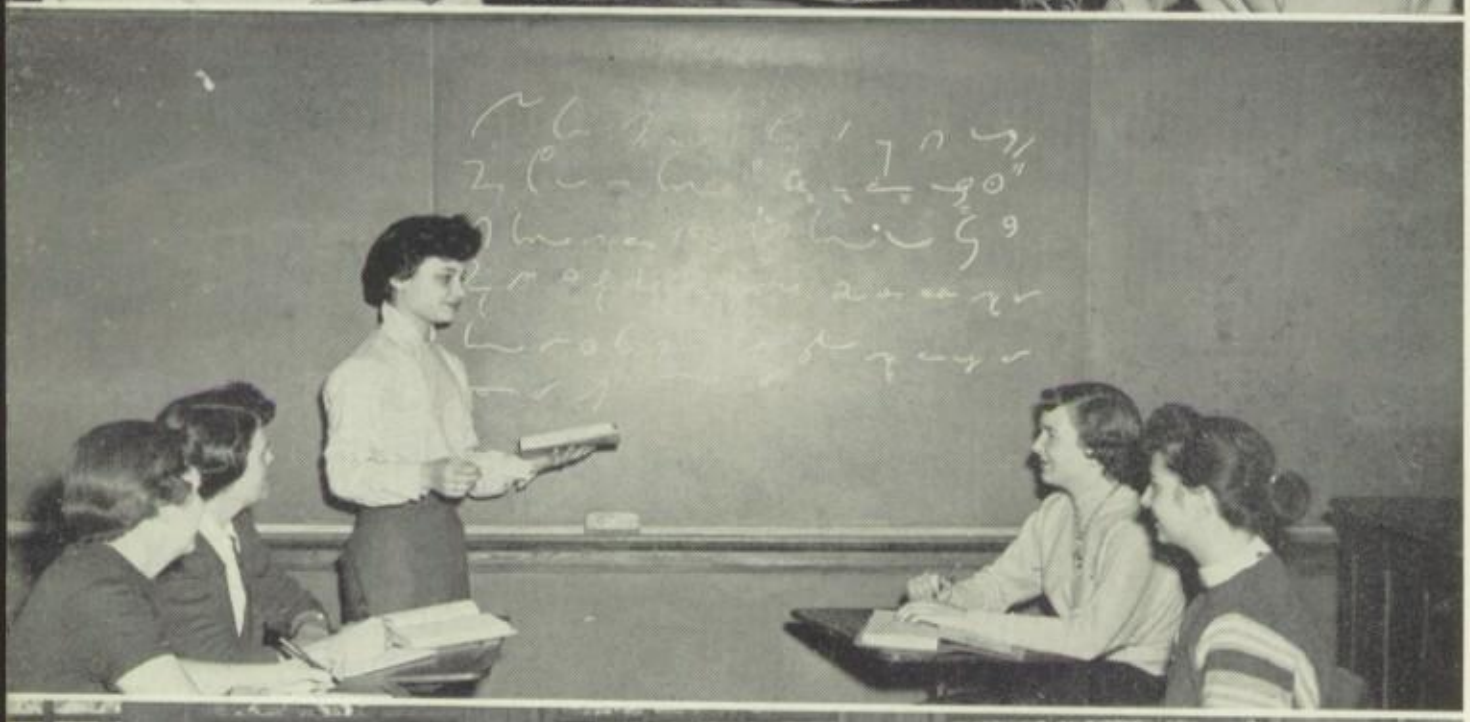
These learned French students,
Have something over on you,
When they visit Antione's,
They'll have no trouble with the menu.

We're brough with addition and subtraction,
And all that easy stuff;
Right now we're begging the teacher,
To give us something really tough.

Masters of the slide rule, Andrew Bernard, Joan Curley, Dwyn Griffin, Ray Glozer and Bob Finnerty listen as Vince Ficocelli shows the very "latest" thing in Trig.

The study of birds
With the use of the chart
Is part of Biology,
But it's only a start.

A study of the wonders of nature is made by John Ulicney, Mary Roberts, Charlotte Kramer and Barbara Milsop.



"Dear Mr. Brown"
Is a well-known phrase.
Always to remind girls
Of their shorthand days.

Judy Barrett, Peggy Sulligan, Loretta Galip, Barbara Lee Burton and Joann Mack are five efficient secretaries ready for office jobs.

Pledging his allegiance
Even unto death
Is this brave noble
From the play "Macbeth."

Michael Petite, Norman Johnson and Bill Welsh play the role of three knights in a scene from English Literature. Mary Ellen Dean, Amelia Matiscik, Ann Petretich and Isabelle Marre seem to be enjoying their antics.

Did you ever stand in front of a class
With the greatest amount of ease;
Only to end up forgetting
your speech;
Plus a bad case of knocking knees?

Debating are Joan Curley, Vince Ficocelli, Carole Carney, Tom McLaughlin, Dwyn Griffin, Bob Shelar and Eileen O'Neill.

We studied the life of Mary,
With devotion, awe and love;
For we know that she will always
Watch over us from above.

The need of prayers and contributions to the Missions is emphasized by Bob Craine to Judy Barrett, Paul Manley, Mary Bertrandо, Regine Rusnak and Ed Voytko.

So great a task it was to found
The Roman race; but then,
It's harder still for us today,
To relive it all again.

A study into the background of Latin literature and culture is made by Carl Kish, Jack Dempsey, Ray Glozer, Mike Petite and Joe Doyle.

Getting acquainted with the retreat master, Father Trese, S.J., are Isabelle Marre, Bernardine Marinelli, Roberta Rubenstahl, Marilyn Lowry and Joan Langley.

The camera bug
Has bitten these six,
They've mastered the art
Of taking good pix.

Albertus Magnus Club members wave good-by before leaving on a field trip. Our most vital tasks
To keep war from our land.

Bob Craine studies the globe as Barbara Howard, Bill Mitchell and Loretta Galip look on. They are officers of the Votes and Vetoes Club.

They look at the trophies
With pride in their eyes,
These prove that Ursuline
Had some real "tough guys."

Joan Christopher, Barbara Niesen, Mary Ann Murphy, Larry Scheetz and Mike Durkin are the trophy admirers.

A focal point at U. H. S.,
Where the crowd is sure to meet.
Ursuline minus its bulletin board,
Would never be complete.

Pat Canavan, Jean Stefanic, Judy Kahl, Georgia Vrabel, Jerry Scheetz and Bob Cleary get together for a "gab" session at the Bulletin Board.

A little bit of powder,
A little bit of paint,
Is making little Gordon
What he really ain't.

"Making up" is almost as much fun as acting for Gordon Welsh who happily submits to the grooming of Dorothy Jones and Margene Flannery. Bob Morgano, undismayed, looks on. These are officers of the Props and Paints Club.

With loving care
They prepared the way;
For Our Dear Lord
To come each day.

Laying vestments for the day's mass are Dwyn Griffin, Dorothy Riley, Joan Curley and Diane McKenna.

Six strong leaders
In the Senior Class
Who felt very privileged
To serve daily Mass.

Tom Hagan, Bob Maynard, Tom Broderick, Phil Conley, Joe Knott and Mike Petite are six of the many altar boys who serve daily Mass.

Twenty little songsters,

Student Council

Establishing better understanding among the students by promoting leadership, responsibility, and initiative is the major purpose of a student council.

Under the direction of Father Reagen, the council has undertaken many noteworthy activities to realize these aims. The most important of these was the development of the "Young Friends of the Blessed Sacrament" to promote attendance at Mass and Holy Communion.

Other projects that deserve to be remembered are the Varsity Hop, the Homecoming Festival, the many gala pep rallies, and Student-of-the-Month selections.

National Honor Society

To be elected to the National Honor Society is the aim of many high school students. Each year fifteen percent of the senior class is chosen on the basis of scholarship, character, service and leadership.

Elevation to this society creates in youth a fellowship based on high ideals and a strong sense of civic obligation, which should, in time, lift the standards of citizenship throughout our land.

Mission Club

The Theresian club for girls and the St. Francis Xavier society for boys make up the Mission club. It presents a program combining the spiritual and social aspects of student life.

Heading the pictures, officers of the Mission club, Jack Dempsey, Dorothy Riley, Joe Doyle and Diane Jacobs discuss the Foreign Missions collection. The Living Rosary (middle picture) is held in October, and the May Crowning (lower picture) is the climax of the Mission club year.

Its mission work never ceases, for the girls' Altar committee prepares daily for Mass, and each day there are ushers on duty in the auditorium chapel.

1954 URSULINIAN STAFF

Co-Editors, Eileen O'Neill and Mary Ellen Dean are thinking up ideas for the 1954 Ursulinian.

Sports Writers, Chuck Spencer, Bill Metzler, Tom Hagan and Phil Conley consult with Editor John Nierlich on page plans and copy.

Each year the doings of Ursuline students are recorded in picture and story for us to treasure in time to come.

This year, with the theme "feet", the staff has tried to retrace the footsteps of the class of '54; each footstep a step forward in our education of the "whole man" body, mind and soul.

We have used "Lil' Abner" as a symbol of victory in our book, for he seems to typify the spirit of Ursuline. His appearance with his tiger on the bulletin board has always announced an Ursuline victory.

The Ursulinian is a picture of the path you have trod during your four years here. It has been the pleasure of the staff to prepare this book for you.

Esther Naberezny, staff artist, brought "Lil' Abner" to life in the '54 annual.

Editorial Staff includes Madalyn Sweeney, Dwyn Griffin, Michelena Fata and Ellen Ann Brahney, standing. Seated, Carole Fickers, Gale Gross, and Carole Carney.

Business Staff Tom Domer, Paul Manley, Barbara Day, Joan Curley, Bill Beeman, Diane McKenna and John Nierlich arrange ad copy while Mike Petite, Bob Craine, Tom McLaughlin, John Ulicney and Dorothy Jones itemize ads and make out statements.

Old hands at page planning and copy-reading are Carole Fickers, Eileen O'Neill, Mary Ellen Dean, Gale Gross and Maryann Barrett.

Some of the ardent readers of the Ursuline News are John Jones, Tom Donlin, John Kane, Bob Leetch, Joe Mincher and Dave Slattery.

Solution To Problems Found In Discussions

Why not go steady? Speeding is fun; why do adults disapprove?

A solution to these and many other problems is being found now that discussions have been resumed in the homerooms—a good place to get the right answers.

These discussions were initiated to help students with their personal problems, and also to help them understand better the adult viewpoint. Teachers have a good chance to find out how the students feel about things in general. It also enables her to gain a better understanding of them.

Friday homeroom periods have been lengthened one day each month to allow time for these discussions.

Marian Year Marks Devotion To Mary

In an Encyclical Letter to mark the 100th anniversary of the proclamation of the dogma of the Immaculate Conception of the Blessed Virgin Mary, Pope Pius XII has formally announced a Marian Year to be observed beginning December, 1953.

His new encyclical gives a review of the Scriptural and Traditional proofs upon which Catholics base the doctrine of the Immaculate Conception, and it also shows the close link between that doctrine and the doctrine of the Assumption — the first privilege coming at the very beginning of the Virgin's early life, the latter at the close.

Marian Year is to be marked by explanations of the greatness Our Lady, and also by special tions to center around and shrines in all par world. Rome is urge upon to lead in t Lourdes is spe The visions of to St. Bern tice.

One

Perhaps the "News" staff knows better than anyone else the meaning of the old adage, "Follow your nose." The publication staff has found that doing this requires quantities of shoe leather and rugged perseverance.

"The Ursuline News" for many years has captured honors in various press contests for student publications. This year's paper took first honors in the National Scholastic, Columbia Scholastic and Catholic Scholastic Press Associations.

Three Wise Guys

In the crisp December air, there's music . . . reverent Christmas hymns, holiday favorites and the latest juke box favorites. Again, the '53 Christmas show featured the joint Glee and Dramatics presentations. As the wise men of old found the stable and the Christ Child, so did the three wise guys find Him in the dramatic offering, "Three Wise Guys."

Mickey, (Bob Morgano) tells Father O'Neill, (Ed Ebert) what he thinks, while frightened Mary (Joan Christopher) and Joe (Teddy Storey) look on.

Mr. Hughes (Bill Beeman) leads his blind son, David, (Tom Hagan) to the Christmas crib.

The three wise guys (John Nierlich, Bob Morgano and Art O'Neil) laugh and jeer at blind David (Tom Hagan).

The Velvet Glove

Rosemary Casey's delightful comedy, "The Velvet Glove," was presented by the Ursuline Players last May. Suspense, comedy, and a touch of romance made the play a huge success.

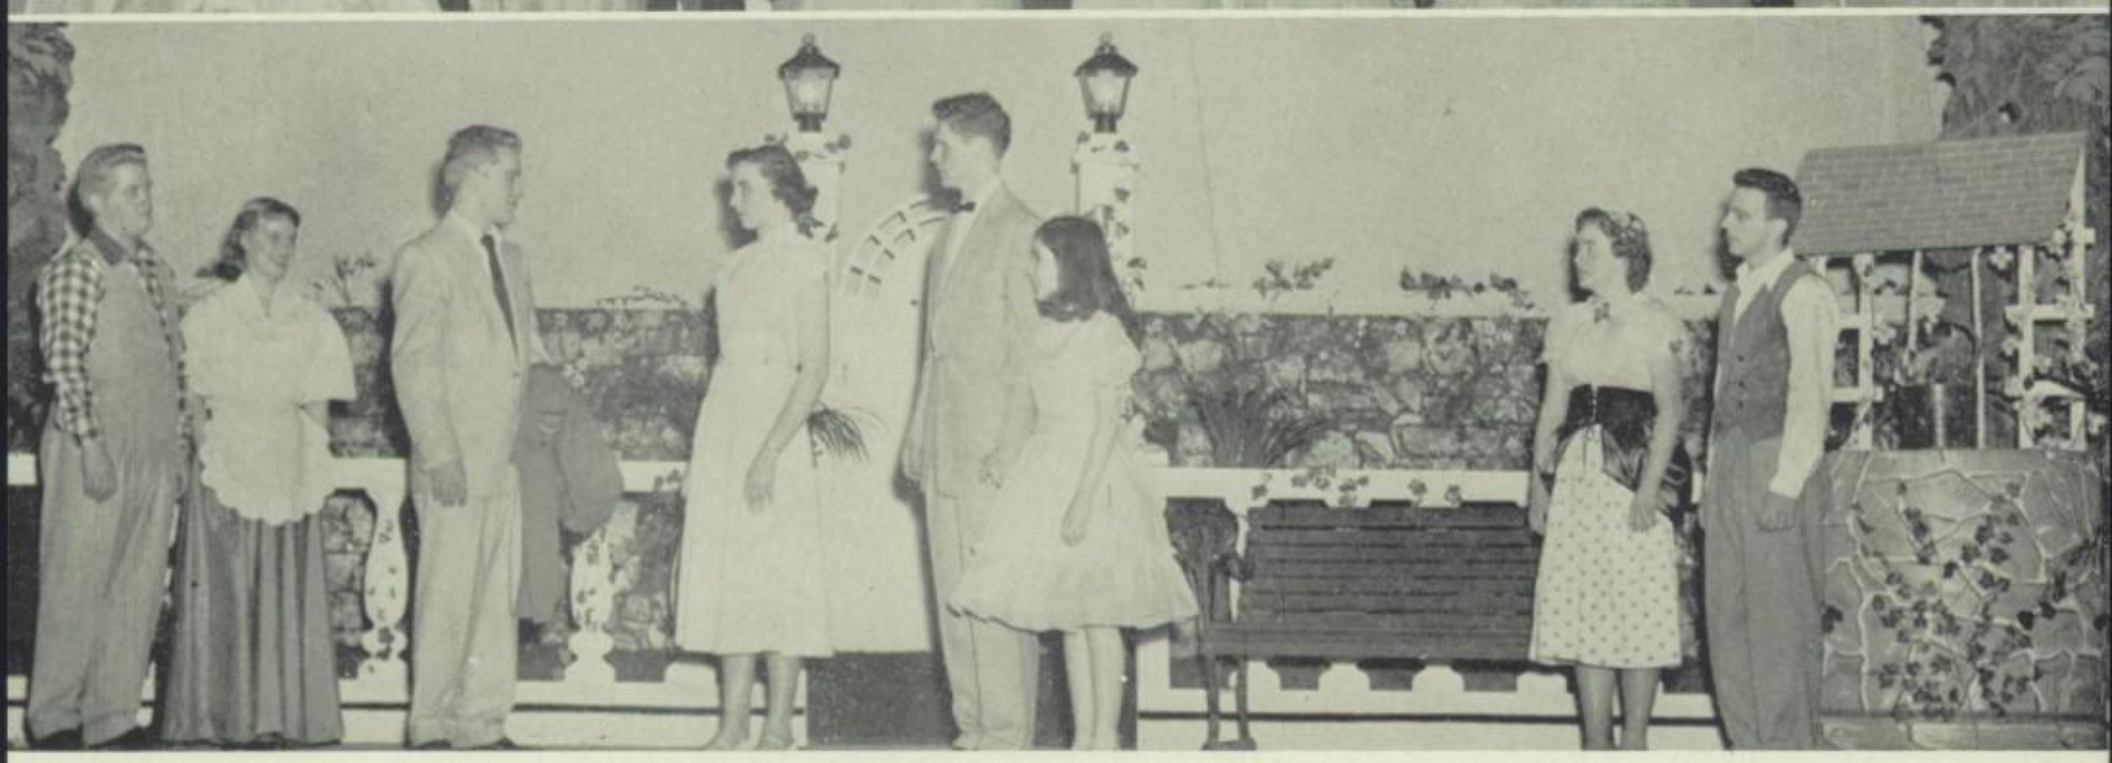
The Wishing Well



With a wave of a shillelagh and a snappy Irish jig the Dramatics Club and Glee Club celebrated St. Patrick's Day presenting a three act play called "The Wishing Well."

"The Wishing Well" cast was composed of Darby Duffy, Jack Rimp; Darby's Wife, Paula Lehnerd; Squire Matthew Baxby, Joe Tomalko; Lady Mary Donnell, Mary Alice Baumert; Terence Fitzpatrick O'Grady, Bill Finn; Noreen, Joan Musselman; Kathleen O'Mara, Mary Ann Gillespie; Dan Tyron, Dick Saunders. The chorus was made up of Glee Club members pictured above.

"I got rhythm; you got rhythm" . . . our band has rhythm too!

Behind the smart, snappy high-stepping performance of the majorettes and band members though were often many tedious, footsore and foot-wearying hours of practice marching.

Mr. Orlando Vitello and Mr. Anthony Fortunato directed the transformation from tired aching feet to "seasoned performers" feet.

Among band and majorette sponsored fun-fests were the spring concert, spaghetti dinner and the Sharps and Flats Dance, where once again rhythmic feet "marked time."

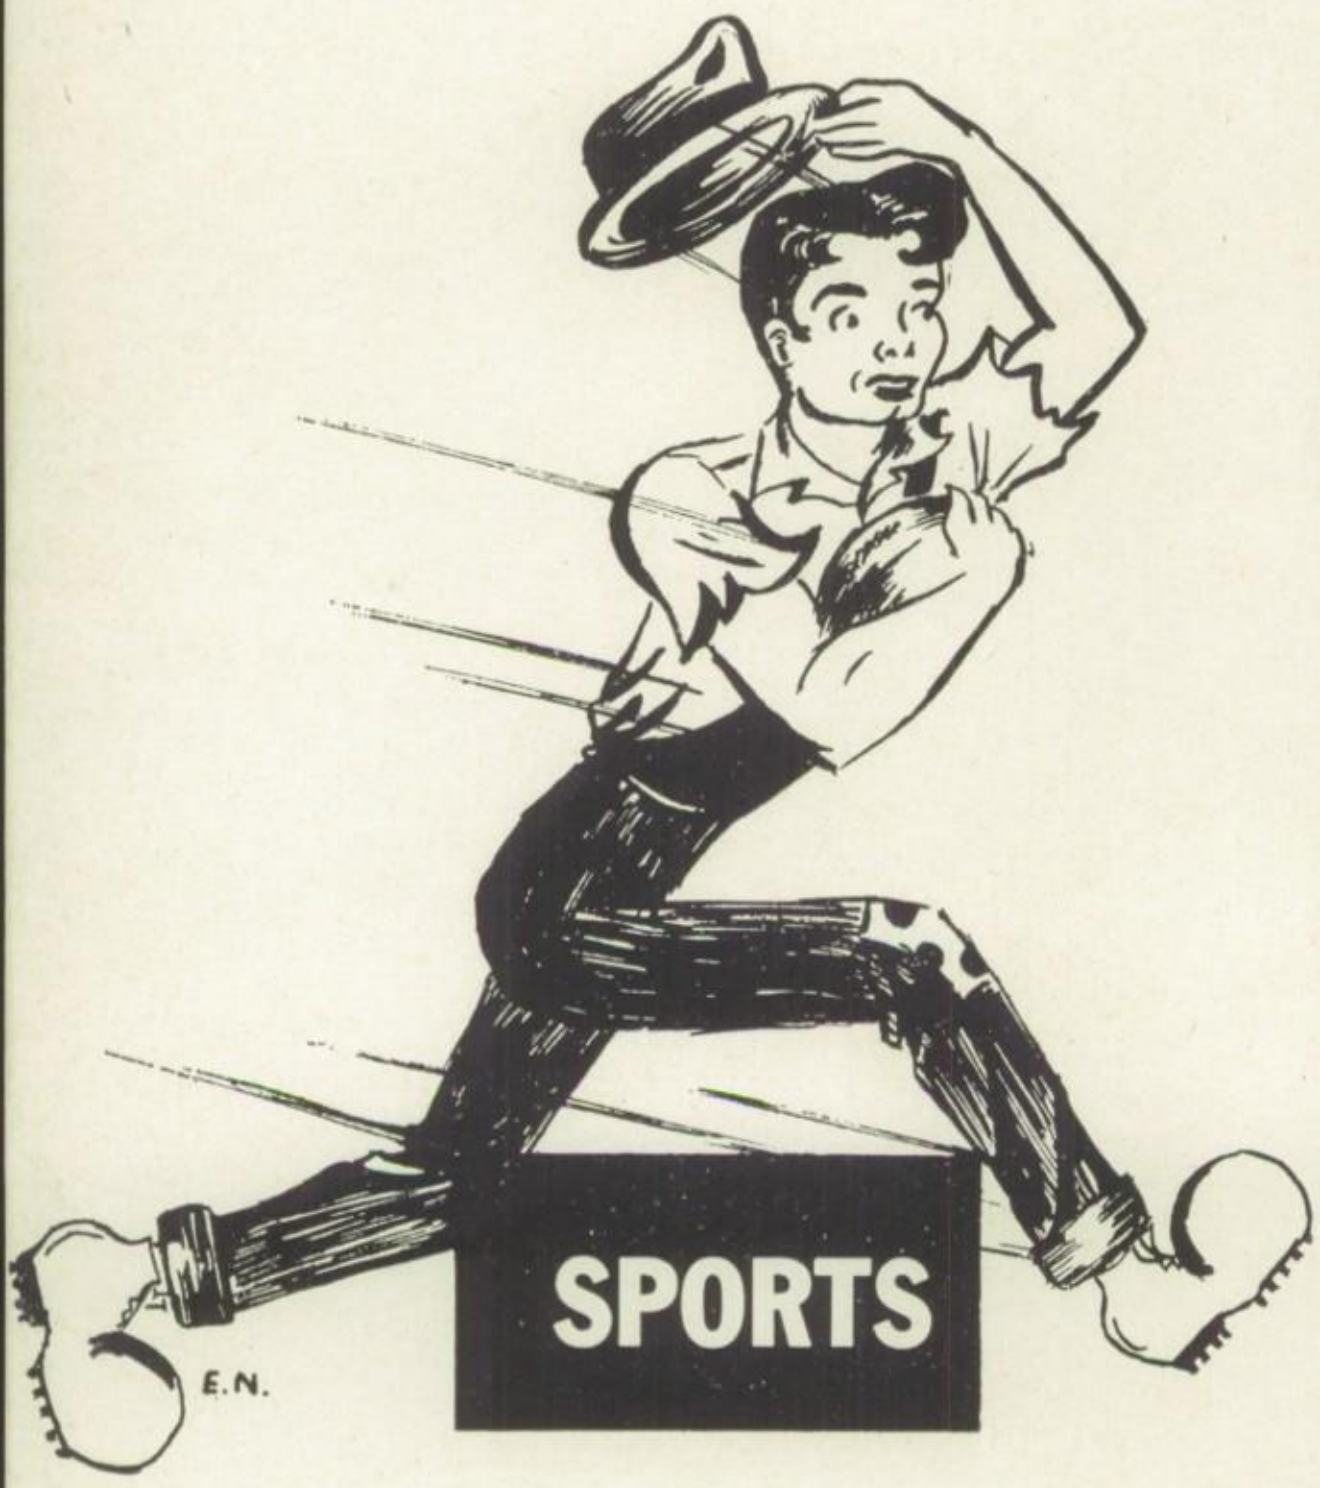
This rapidly stepping world of ours presses the need for a well-developed body and mind. One of the main ways to attain this is through participation in sports. The physical victories which have brought our team close to winning the city championship have developed, not only physical prowess but spiritual stamina and intellectual ability as well.

Adapting the set rules of the athletic world to the moral standards of life's game, we find that there have been many parallels. The ability to work with others; determination to succeed and persevere; the acceptance of failure when it comes . . . these have been the life-lessons we have taken from sports.



On the gridiron, the feet of our boys trampled over such worthy opponents as East, Chaney, North and Wilson. Finding stronger opponents in the Rayen and South tussles, the foot powder had to be applied.

The white-clad feet of our hoopsters seemed to be just a little behind those of our opponents; they seemed to halt as the score reads 4 wins and 16 losses.

The Ursuline team carried the Irish green and gold through ten hard and bitterly fought games. We were all proud when they came home victorious and we stayed to back them up in defeat. This great team will be in our memory forever because of its ability to go out with all the odds against it, under the name of the "Fighting Irish," and bring home victories.

You know the old saying, "An Irish team that won't be beaten, can't be beaten". Though they had some bad breaks, the '53 squad will still go down as one of the greatest teams in Ursuline High's history.

Ursuline 12 — Canton Central 0

Ursuline captured the Youngstown Diocesan football crown, defeating its archrival, Canton Central Catholic. The Irish tallied in the second and final periods for its margin. Ed Voytko and P. J. Moore scored the touchdowns.

Ursuline 13 — Campbell 13

Ursuline rallied in the closing minutes to take a 13-7 lead over Campbell Memorial, but the Red Devils from Memorial came back to score with only 50 seconds remaining as the teams battled to a 13-13 tie before 3,500 fans. Co-captain Ed Voytko scored the two Irish touchdowns and Carmen Pomponio blocked Tirpak's try for the extra point.

Ursuline 20 — East 6

Ursuline's gridiron opportunis s, keyed to concert pitch, struck with lightning-like speed to burst the bubble of East invincibility. Aggressive Pat Moore, deceptive Dave Kimmel, and alert Larry Scheetz provided the scoring for the Irish eleven.

Ursuline 19 — Chaney 0

The opening game for the Fighting Irish was an overwhelming success. Bob Finnerty tallied the first Irish marker. "Dandy" Dave Kimmel was at his best, scoring once and gaining 140 yards rushing; John Jubak accounted for the other T. D.

Ursuline 19 — Steubenville 0

Ursuline scored early in the game when Ed Voytko scored from the 15 yard line. Kimmel scored twice; once from the 13 and once on a 26 yard aerial. The defense featured again and Steubenville never seriously threatened.

Ursuline 14 — North 6

Halfback Carmen Pomponio personally accounted for all the Irish point output, while Ed Voytko was chief ground gainer with 106 yards. J. Scheetz had 27. On line plays, North's Carter and Arnett found Ursuline's forward wall rock ribbed.

Ursuline 7 — Rayen 13

Voytko was the chief ground threat for Ursuline with 50 yards in 11 tries. Dave Kimmel was in action on punt returns and was used sparingly in the final minutes due to an injured knee. Finnerty accounted for the Irish touchdown with only one minute to go in the first half.

Ursuline 21 — Alliance 19

This was one of the best games Ursuline ever played. Twice coming from behind they pulled this game out of the fire. Kimmel scored two times to feature for the Irish while Rujay Jones was the Aviators' threat. Carmen Pomponio kicked all three extra points with his "Golden Toe."

Ursuline 7 — South 28

Despite two early South T. D.'s, Ursuline was very much in the game until Bill Rouse intercepted a Masi to Kimmel pass and scampered 92 yards to put South ahead 21 to 7. Ed Voytko contributed his usual ground gaining, but it wasn't enough as South won the bitterly fought game and the City Championship 28 to 7 before 12,000 fans at South High.

Ursuline 6 — Wilson 0

This game, played at Rayen Stadium, was mostly a game to see which team could get going through wind and snow. After a scoreless first half in which neither team did much moving, the Irish came back with Dave Kimmel scoring in the second half to win.

Freshman Gridders

The 1953 football season was fairly successful for the Irish freshmen. They completed the season with four victories and two defeats. With this record, it looks as if the students will be cheering a championship team in the next few years.

Seniors of 1954, who themselves followed a championship team, know that the freshmen with a beginning record so impressive will probably follow in their footsteps.

The Irish basketball team had a lot of tough luck, but it fought gamely throughout the season. The record of three wins and sixteen losses does not tell the whole story.

The team never lost its spirit, and many of the games were close right up to the wire. Win or lose, the team always produced a hard fought contest.

Kimmel Features As Ursuline Wins

Ursuline's cagers took a 21-17 halftime lead and proved to be the better foot steamers as they eliminated Brookfield 46-43.

With Dave Kimmel's 14 points gracing the offense, the Irish cashed in on 16 of 30 free throw attempts, while Brookfield made 15 of 41. Both teams had 19 field goals. Ursuline held a 32-30 lead heading into the final period, when Chaney and South High quintets took a firm grip on first place in the City Series race with thrilling victories at the South Field House last night before 1,457 fans.

In the most torrid battle thus far in the season, South edged North, 55-53, in a "sudden-death" double overtime sizzler. Randy McElroy's shot won for South. Chaney, meanwhile, staged a desperate last-quarter rally to turn back East, 59-52.

It was victory No. 3 for South and Chaney, who share the lead in the local play.

URSULINE 49 — EAST 68

The Irish battled East on even terms for one quarter, 15-15. However, in the second quarter, East rolled up a 33-18 lead. Dave Kimmel and Pat Moore led the Irish with 16 and 14 points respectively.

URSULINE 54 — WARREN ST. MARY 42

URSULINE 46 — BROOKFIELD 45

Ursuline cagers took a 21-17 halftime lead and proved to be the better foul shooters as they eliminated Brookfield 46-45. The lead men in the point department of the game for the Irish were Saunders with 10, Kimmel with 14, and Pat Moore with 9.

URSULINE 42 — NILES 54

The first three quarters were an utter defeat for the Irish 5. However, in the beginning of the fourth period, the Irish began a "pressing" defensive led by Saunders, who obtained help from Bob Dressler and Paul Maguire in the scoring department to make the score 42-35. The gap was closed to within 5 points of a tie, but the Niles boys wouldn't let them get those last few.

Jack Dempsey and Pat Moore rush in to assist Dave Kimmel in rescuing the ball from North's Leon Harper in a non-City Series battle at the North gym.

URSULINE 53 — WILSON 54

The 1953 track team participated in ten track meets, of which only one defeat was recorded. Their mile relay team consisting of Kollar, Sedmak, Pesa, and Scheetz, was so impressive that it was sent along with Dave Kimmel in the "200" and Tom Dalzell in the shot put, to the Columbus State meet. The boys who achieved letters in "53" were: Dalzell, Kimmel, Schlueter, Schulick, Pesa, Scheetz, Kollar, Kish, Sedmak, Bobovnyk, Voytko and Finnerty.

We've come so far from the Little Red School . . . the place Grandpa left to go out into the world. The simple training that he acquired in that one-room building of long ago was SO vastly different from yours!

Education has leaped right along with the hurried advance of science and industry . . . and youth has discovered complexities early . . . so early that some of the most startling finds in the world of invention today have come from the minds of the very young.

Take the vast store of wisdom that these years of study have given you. Take it right on to new fields of knowledge . . . to college, to business, to the career you choose. Remember that most knowledge has been recorded in books . . . so continue to study, continue to work toward GREATER heights of perfection. Our best wishes go with you all of the way!
